

JACKMAN MSS:

BIOGRAPHY:

This small collection does not deal with one figure or subject. It is a collection of papers relating to the Jackman family. Specifically it relates to Abel Jackman of the Revolutionary War and descendants along with a discussion of the origins of the Jackman name.

SCOPE:

Details are provided for a James Jackman who was the son of Edith Jackman and Hannah French born in Salisbury, Massachusetts in 1789. There is mention also of an Enoch Jackman a Revolutionary War soldier who died in Solon, Maine on December 20, 1833. He settled a homestead near Parlin Pond where a frame dwelling was prepared. It includes a James Jackman of Newbury, Massachusetts, who married Mary French of Salisbury, Mass. The Jackman family extended from Exeter, England to Newbury, Mass. A William Jackman, son of James R. Jackman, in Genessee County, New York is also mentioned. Some of the other Jackman names mentioned include: Richard Jackman born February 6, 1859, James Jackman b.
